

FAIR TRANSPORT

FOR EUROPE — SOCIAL JUSTICE, SOLIDARITY, UNITY!

Congress week begins!

Delegates are arriving in Barcelona ahead of what is hoped to be the 'most participatory' ETF congress ever! More than 500 participants from 41 countries will meet for the 5th ordinary congress in Barcelona. General secretary Eduardo Chagas said: "We want this to be our most participatory congress ever. It's the input of transport unions and their young workers and women workers we need to help define the ETF priorities and to tackle the challenges the transport sector faces in Europe."

Young workers centre stage at #ETF2017

Young transport workers from across Europe met in Barcelona today for the first part of their dedicated youth conference. Response to the European youth employment crisis, climate change and gender equality were topics up for debate. Search #ETF2017 for more online.

#ETF2017 Statement of the day

"We must enthuse young people and inspire them to take action around the lack of social responsibility in the market – both for workers and for the environment." James Stevens, Unite, UK

Tweet of the day

